

Dept. of commerce

Course outcome

B. Com – 3 year (Six Semesters) Degree Course

After completing the course students will be able to understand the followings –

Semester I

Students will acquire conceptual knowledge of the financial accounting and to impart skills for recording various kinds of business transactions.

The objective of this course is to impart basic knowledge of the important business laws along with relevant case law. This course aims at providing the student with knowledge of basic concepts, Money, Monetary Standards, Banking Growth

Semester II

Business Organisation And Administration, Financial Accounting, Corporate Laws

Semester III

Human Resource Management, Direct Taxes Law and Practices, Business Economics, Constitution Of India And Human Rights

Semester IV

To provide basic knowledge and equip students with applications of principles and provisions of Goods and Services Tax (GST), business statistics, business management, computer application in business and tally, Entrepreneurship

Semester V

To acquaint the students with basic concepts management accounting and various methods involved in cost ascertainment systems, Cost accounting, Financial markets, institutions and financial services, auditing, corporate tax planning

Semester VI

The objective of this course is to provide basic knowledge and concepts, principles, tools and techniques of marketing. Market Selection, Pricing and its Significance, Retailing, Rural marketing