

Department of Political Science

Programme Outcome: The Undergraduate Political Science Course is a Credit Based Semester Scheme, spreaded over Six to Eight Semesters for Undergraduate Programme. The objective of the course is to provide a firm grounding in the subject, imbibe analytical skills and to develop a realistic and pragmatic perspective on the local, national, regional and international issues that figure in the syllabus. The syllabus has been updated. Many new and innovative papers are being offered in keeping with the changing times and circumstances, as well as the larger societal needs.

The department is dedicated to promote teaching in diverse fields of political science including Core Concepts of Political Science, Understanding Political Theory, Public Administration: Core concepts, Western and Ancient and Modern Indian Political Thought, Indian Constitution: Institutional Frame Work, International Politics, Major Constitutional Systems, International Organizations and Foreign Policies. Presently, the department is offering Political Science as one of the subjects in Undergraduate course.
